SnackGarden

Healthy deliciousness isn't just what you eat, but also how you eat. The SnackGarden fosters balance, creativity, mindfulness, playfulness, and sharing.

About Rebel Ventures

We are a youth powered social enterprise creating healthy deliciousness with kids in schools and in our community.

The Rebel Ventures crew creates products for kids and adults to eat good food and have fun doing it. Our vision is for kids to learn in schools and at home how to grow good food, cook good food, share good food and eat good food. We believe in learning by creating and by tasting.
